SPEIRS TALKS ABOUT O'CONNELL.

Big Gelding a Sprinter and Wants Little Work.

HE GOES BACK EASILY.

Work Takes the Edge Off Him, and I
He Does Not Get It Me Will Run Short.

W. J. Speirs, the owner of O'Connell, has the big gelding entered in a six and one-half furlong race to-day, and he admits that this is about as far as O'Connell wants to go. Speaking about O'Connell's recent defeats, Mr. Speirs says:
"My horse is a natural sprinter, and he needs little, if any work for his distance.
I rarely get a chance to run him in the West, however, unless I start him around the mile route. O'Connell don't want to go that far, and he is a great sprinter. He looks like monkeys at six furlongs, stand a great chance to beat him when they meet him at seven furlongs or upward. O'Connell needs little work for a three-quarter dash, but when he is started he works the mile mark, he must be worked the route, and that takes the edge off him. If he is not worked, he goes, so that it can readily be seen how I am between the devil and the deep blue sea, when I can not get him to go that far, and he is a great sprinter." Mr. Speirs' remarks are borne out by O'Connell's record. When he ran his first race, his owner, Chinn and Morgan, did not think he had a chance, because almost nothing in the way of work he had done. He went to the post at 30 to 1, and lost. He was the great automatic of his owners.

Jim Murphy, the St. Louis turfman, who paid John Rodegus $5,000 for Buck Massie, is afraid the severe campaign which he will make through this spring may seriously injure him. "I take my line," said Murphy, "from Henry of Navarre's work this season. He was the best horse on the American turf last year, but the first time he met a real good race horse, they'll beat him."

EARL COCHRAN.
(Clever St. Louis Lightweight Jockey.)

Santa Anita, this season he was beaten.
Of course, I may be mistaken, but I believe the reason for it is that McClelland gave Navarre too much of it last season. According to my theory, he was raced just about out forever by the season's hard drumming. My horse was put through a hard campaign from the start in the spring.
He is still a very good piece of thought and breed, but he is not the same Buck Massie he was when Rodegus commenced the season with him. He has bought him this spring for $100. At the time Pelles was thought to be a broken-down cripple.

Mrs. Maud Puleifer, the only daughter of David C. Puleifer, who became famous as the owner of the wonderful little away back Tenny, Salvador's great rival, was married to Joseph Melanin, a young jockey, Melanin is 20 years old. He and his bride are located at West Brighton, Staten Island, where the marriage of the pair was made public in New York Friday, and it created great comment in turf circles.

next week and endeavor to win the Members' Handicap with the great son of Loyalist.

Wis., lowering the record over a half mile track from 2:15.

exhibition half mile at Leroy, Ill., in 1:07 1/2.
She was driven by C. D. Brodway.

Jimmie Mac paced a mile in 2:13 1/2 at Detroit, which lowers the Michigan State record over a half-mile track.

The Eastern Jockey Club has refused Counselor Bill'Brien's application for a trainer's license.

Dan Houlihan has become disgusted playing Gardner's outside mounts and will back his own horses only hereafter.

Clarence O'Fallon's Assignee was ridden in bungling shape by a green jockey named D. Henry.

Walter O. Farmer announces that "Lucky" Baldwin will bring Roy El Santa Anita and several more of his horses to Windsor next week. "Lucky" will go well for Roy El Santa Anita, but "Lucky" has purses, which are being hung up at Windsor.

The Chinese played Ingomar for a good time at the Casino, but "Lucky" Imperia beat her by covering the seven furlongs in 1:27 1/2, setting a new record.

Fallon interfered with Utopia at the head of the stretch, and bumped into Barbarosa in the last straight, but his daughter's claim of foul was not allowed.

Charlie Huerton had his first mount since he was retained by Lizzard, and he lost the race for Speirs' mare by letting Moderoco steal up at the end.

Misery, Decker, Vagabond and other appropriately named dogs, are racing at the outlawed merry-go-rounds near the National Club.

"Kid" Livingston Knocked Out.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 7.—Jack Livingston, known as "The St. Paul Kid," was knocked out by Frenchy Osborne last night in three rounds. They fought for a purse of $200 and the entrance money.

CHRIS PLANS.

Claims are Already in for Stafford and Con Strouthers.

Chris let Stafford of the New Orleans slip through his fingers this season when he headed him badly, but he has now determined that if the ex-Southern League first baseman plays well there is the season he will do a Brown Stocking uniform next year. Stafford is now with Milwaukee, and Chris has already put in a claim for him, holding the deposit until he is satisfied Stafford is worth the amount. Con Strouthers of Detroit is another first baseman whom Chris has his eye upon, and the claim is also in for him.

As announced in Friday's Post-Dispatch, Chris Conder has decided to give Nigger Connor's younger brother a trial in Boston, and should he prove speedy enough for National company he will be signed.
J. P. Connor has played with the Kennebec, and his record is good there, but there is many a youngster who plays well in minor leagues who cannot keep up his end when he gets with the big boys. But young Connor has had good training, and it is only fair to let him playing with the pros the rest of the season decide the matter.

President Friedman met Mr. Temple in Boston the other day and asked him what he had decided about the Temple cup. The reply came instantly: "There is no question to settle about that cup. The clubs finishing first and second will play for it, despite New York's claim of such a contest. The cup was given with the idea that the first two teams at the end of the League season should play it, not, as every fan of the club should carry out this year."

To-morrow amateur base ball will be in order at Sportman's Park, and it will be of the best class. The famous Belleville Clubs and Marquette Club will play the first game of the series for the amateur championship of Southern Illinois. The contest will be a hard one, and every inch of ground will be fought for heroically, for the loss of this game carries with it the loss of the championship.

THIS WAS HARD LUCK.

Brettenstein's Accident a Serious Misfortune to the Browns.

The most serious piece of misfortune which could have occurred to the Browns happened Friday, when Brettenstein was hit in the knee by a ball. The great player will scarcely be able to play again this season.
The score:
Philadelphia.....0 1 2 0 0 0 0 1-9

St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn.
Chicago at New York.
Louisville at Philadelphia.
Brooklyn at Cleveland.
Washington at Pittsburgh.

Base Ball Notes.

Jimmy Collins says he would prefer to go home than to go to Boston and sit on the bench.

With Theodore Brettenstein out of the game, St. Louis stands a good chance of finishing last.

The New York management has given Shortstop "Yale" Murphy his ten days' relief.

Tom Brown is batting hard since he joined the Washingtons. In ten games he has made fourteen hits.

Wiley Davis, the crack Knoxville pitcher, whom Brown is after, refuses to sign with Cincinnati for the balance of the season, but promises to play for the team next year.

Joe Kelley of the Baltimore has made his tenth home run.

Bould has given Frank Conneron and $1,000 for Catcher Martin Bergen of Kansas City.

Among the other bets that Capt. Anson of the Chicago made was one of $500 that the Louisville would this season finish first.

Joe Burkett will no doubt be the kingpin batter of the National League for the season of 1896. His average is now .430.

Tom Brown seems to be ascending the slope. Formerly with Louisville, then with the Athletics, he is now with Washington.

Bill McQuip now leads the batters on the Washington team with a percentage of .322. Joyce is second with .315, and Sebach third with .315.

Clark leads all the Louisville batters, with an average of .354. In a faster time he would come pretty near leading the league.

Bill Hassamer's injury will keep him out of the game for some time. Meanwhile Hank Spivey will play first base for Louisville.

John Brush says that Bergen of the Kansas City, who is booked as one of the outchors of the Boston team next season, is one of the best in the business.

It is now understood that the League will give an umpire for next season will consist of Hume, Gaffney, Emille, Lynch, O'Day, McDonald and Reese. With such talent the game will hardly suffer from bad umpiring next year.
